September, 2023

A new academic year has begun, and it's been a great start for ULC. Six new students have joined us and we pray they'll continue! We've had to expand our Sunday dinner table! Here's a pic of some of us.

On one of the first weekends we enjoyed an outing to climb up Mount Bonnell above Austin. Afterwards we enjoyed a visit to Mozart's Coffee Roasters.

(Right): We also had a cleaning day at ULC so that we could get the church cleaned up for the beginning of the new school year.

On the international student side of our ministry, we've moved! Well, just a little. In repurposing space at St. Paul Lutheran Church/Austin, where we meet for our English and Bible classes, the church has graciously moved us to a bigger room in a more convenient part of the church campus.

New appliances, projection and furniture welcome our students to English and Bible classes in person and on-line.

We really take pride in being a ministry that isn't just English. We're more than that. We're a family of people who like to improve language, but also gain new friends and support each other. We are especially grateful for the cadre of volunteer teachers and the students who are already Christians who shine the Light of Jesus to those who don't yet know Him.

Thanks so much for your prayers and financial support which help make all of this ministry possible.
