Another academic year is done! A joyous, yet sad time for ULC, as we graduated 8 faithful students. They were part of the backbone of ULC and we'll miss them greatly.

L to R: Grant Kieschnick, McKinney, TX, BS in Economics; Teo Jakobsen, McKinney, TX, BSA Neuroscience Honors and BA Plan II Honors; Aiden Berdahl, Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Masters in Law; Katie Goerner, Katy, TX, BS in Kinesiology and Health; Sam Ziegelbein, Plano, TX, Masters in Computer Science; Thomas Williams, Huntsville, TX, BS in Computer Science; Andrew Gallmeier, Coldspring, TX, BS in Radio, Film & Television; Emily Otto, Magnolia, TX, Masters in Speech Therapy

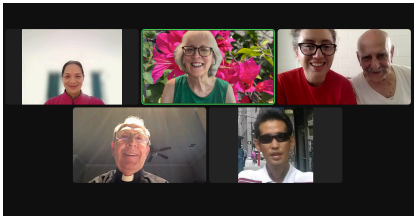

We enjoyed our highest number of students this year, averaging 16 in worship. We have some really wonderful students at ULC!

Along with Bible Studies and Wednesday and Sunday worship times, students also enjoyed a day of pickleball, and some did the Longhorn Run this semester.

Our international ministry enjoyed another good year. Here are some end-of-year statistics: Number of internationals who attended at least one Bible Class session: 46 from 13 countries (Please note: many of these are not Christians yet.)

Internationals who attended other ESL classes: 40 from 14 countries

Total internationals served: 86 from 21 countries: Japan, China, S. Korea, Ukraine, Kazakhstan, Belarus, Russia, Mexico, Azerbaijan, Poland, Latvia, Iran, Singapore, Iraq, Brazil, Turkey, Somalia, Italy, Taiwan, France, Hong Kong

In addition to the 5 Bible classes we offered, we also had English Conversation, Book Club, American Idioms & Slang, and a Water-Color Painting group, led by wonderful volunteers.

Top to bottom: Pr. Al Lange's Bible Class on Zoom; Betty Bobo's conversation group; Cheryl Wawrzyiniak conversation group; Liz Zoch's Book Club; John Jacob's conversation group. Nancy Giese's conversation group

We finished the year with a fun potluck lunch.
